G D/F# Am7 G/B C

My God, to thee I call Must I for - ev - er mourn? So My com - forts all de - cay, My in - ward foes pre - vail; If Dear source of all my joys, And sol - ace of my care, O far from thee, my life, my all? O when wilt thou re - turn! Dark thou with - hold thy heal - ing ray, Ex - pir - ing hope will fail. A - wilt thou hear my plain - tive voice And grant my hum - ble prayer! Then — as shades of night My gloom - y sor - rows rise, And way dis - tress - ing fears, My gra - cious God is nigh, And if my trou - bles rise, To thee, my God, I'll flee, And hide thy soul - re - viv - ing light From these de - sir - ing eyes. heav'n - ly pi - ty sees my tears, And mark each ris - ing sigh.

 raise my hopes a - bove the skies, And cast my cares on thee.
